No.SYA.75/2013/137. - The Governor of Meghalaya is pleased to notify the District Sports Promotion Societies (DSPS) Revised Guidelines with immediate effect.

VIJAY KUMAR D,
Commissioner and Secretary to the Govt. of Meghalaya,
Sports and Youth Affairs Department.

Contents in the District Sports Promotion Societies (DSPS) Revised Guidelines 2023.

1	Rationale
2	Objectives of the Scheme
3	Composition of the Society
4	Permissible and Non-Permissible Activities/Programmes under the Scheme
5	Allocation of Funds
6	Repairs and Restoration of Sports Infrastructure
7	Scheme Implemented

1. Rationale

The District Sports Promotion Societies (DSPS) aspire to achieve some of the key objectives outlined in the State Sports Policy notified in 2019. The DSPS across all the districts shall be registered as not for profit entities under the Societies Registration Act with the sole purpose of promotion and development of sports at grassroot level in their respective districts.

The DSPS shall act as conduits for planning and implementation of various projects, programmes and initiatives pertaining to development of sports at grassroot level across all the districts of the State.

The updated guidelines are notified to strengthen the existing mechanisms based on the learnings from the scheme implementation so far.

2. Objectives of the Scheme

- a. To create a conducive, inclusive and enabling environment in the districts which would encourage wider participation in sports and physical activities.
- b. To extend support and financial aid to entities/organisations/associations at the district level working to develop and promote sports and physical activities.
- c. To augment technical capacity in regards to human resources at the district level working to develop and promote sports and physical activities.
- d. To ensure each district has sufficient amounts of the required sports equipment and consumables for planning and implementation of various sports development programmes and initiatives.

3. Composition of the Society

The Society membership will now be revised according to the table below:

Sl. No.	Member	Designation
1	Deputy Commissioner	Chairman
2	District Sports Officer	Member Secretary
3	Superintendent of Police	Member
4	Physical Training Instructor & Coach	Member
5	Technical Authority from PWD or DDRA as deemed fit by Chairman	Member
5	President/Secretary of District Sports Association 1 (Nominated by the Member Secretary for a term of 2 Years)	Member
6	President/Secretary of District Sports Association 2 (Nominated by the Member Secretary for a term of 2 Years)	Member
7	President/Secretary of District Sports Association 3 (Nominated by the Member Secretary for a term of 2 Years)	Member
8	Representative from Prominent Youth Club nominated by the Society (on Approval by Chairman for a term of 2 Years).	Member

4. Permissible and Non-Permissible Activities/Programmes under the Scheme

The non-exhaustive list of permissible activities that may be undertaken by the various DSPS are as under:

- a. Planning and conduct of district level/block level/sub-division level tournaments and competitions.
- b. Planning and conduct of invitational inter district level tournaments and competitions.
- c. Planning and conduct of Indigenous Sporting Events.
- d. Planning and organization of Summer/Winter coaching camps with national/international level coaches.
- e. Recruitment of community level coaches for imparting basic coaching and training in various sports.
- f. Procurement of sports equipment which shall become a permanent asset to the district.
- g. Planning and conduct of workshops and clinics on sports nutrition/injury management and rehabilitation/high performance training etc.
- h. Scholarships to identified potential talent who are not covered in the sports scholarship scheme and are screened/recommended by the DSPS.
- i. Support to individual/group of athletes for preparation for Regional/National Sporting Competitions.
- j. Financial assistance to sports organisations/associations to organize cups/tournaments.
- k. Organisation of campaigns and programmes in line with the Sports Authority of India's Fit India Campaign.
- l. Procurement of Consumables for Sports Training/Other Sports-related activities.

The above list is non-exhaustive. Respective DSPS that intend to plan and organise programmes beyond the above list may submit their proposals to the Directorate of Sports and Youth Affairs for approval/concurrence.

The list of non-permissible activities and programmes are:

- a. Loans.
- b. Acquisition of land.
- c. For religious worship or functions.
- d. Completion of incomplete schemes started under any other programme.
- e. Any other programme not in conformity with the objectives of the guidelines.

5. Allocation of funds

The funds shall be drawn as a lumpsum grant in aid provided by the directorate to the accounts of the respective DSPS every year. Funds shall be made available for the scheme in the annual budget of the Department of Sports & Youth Affairs. Respective societies that complete their funding allocation for the year may submit a request for additional funding to be considered by the Directorate of Sports and Youth Affairs.

The DSPS may provide grants in accordance with this guideline costing not more than INR 2.00 Lakhs per project. Programmes and events costing more than INR 2.00 Lakhs would require the prior approval of the Directorate.

Prior approval would be required from the Directorate for the DSPS intending to implement any project beyond the list of permissible activities or any individual project which is beyond INR 2.00 lakhs. The Directorate may process the proposal and accord sanction to the concerned DSPS for implementation.

6. Repairs and Restoration of Sports Infrastructure

Funding for Repair/Restoration of district level Infrastructure of a minor nature may also be routed through the DSPS. The protocols of such shall be followed as per the direction listed below or any Infrastructure Development Framework notified by the Department in the future.

Applications may be submitted to the respective DSPS by the Caretakers of the respective infrastructure (Dorbar Shnong, Nokma, State/District Sports Association, Sports Club, etc.). The DSPS may take the opinion/observations of the technical authority member in the DSPS (from PWD or DRDA) to verify the feasibility and safety parameters of the work.

Further, the Directorate/Department may request documentation regarding the scope of work and/or a No Objection Certificate (NOC) from the State Sports Council of Meghalaya (SSCM) before approving any projects. The protocols of approval and execution will be implemented under the following guidelines:

Sl. No.	Type of Repair/Restoration	Approving Authority	Implementing Authority
1	Repair/Restoration under ₹ 2 Lakhs	DSPS	Caretaker Organisation
2	Repair/Restoration between ₹ 2-6 Lakhs	Directorate of Sports and Youth Affairs (after review of District Level Technical Authorities)	DSPS
3	All Work above ₹ 6 Lakhs	Department of Sports and Youth Affairs	SSCM

- All construction work will be overseen by the respective DSPS and the District Administration.
- DSPS will ensure that all restoration/repair of infrastructure in phases are evaluated with regards to the overall objective intended before approving proposals.
- A Committee will be constituted at each level to approve all relevant projects:

Directorate of Sports and Youth Affairs

Sl. No.	Member	Designation
1	Director, Sports and Youth Affairs	Chairman
2	Assistant Director, Sports and Youth Affairs	Member Secretary
3	Representative of Chief Engineer, SSCM	Member
